SATURDAY MORNING NOV 28, 1863

A Frank Confession

The heart of the Democracy is not in this war, and never will be unless its character is entirely changed —Marysville Express

The Express is the leading organ of the California Northern men with Southern principles and sympathies, and does not hesitate to avow its desire that the war may result in favor of the rebellion The heart of the Democracy will be in the war when it is conducted so as to hurt nobody at the South, or so as to surrender to Jeff Davis and his fellow-conspirators, all that they claim and even more Fortunately such a heart is nearly done beating it is as base as the body in which it lives, and both heart and body are smitten with a paralysis which will shortly prove fatal, in the final struggle, the above confession is a slight proof that falsehood and hypocrisy will not pay any longer, though for three years past hardly any one has been deceived upon the subject Democracy has opposed the war as earnestly as possible, and by obstructing the action of the Government to its utmost, has satisfied the people that its heart was on the side of the rebellion and that its hands only lacked courage and opportunity, to be busily engaged in active service against the Nation, and on the side of treason

ARE PEACE DEMOCRATS PATRIOTIC?—When a political party confesses that its plans are aided by rebel success, and by every defeat of our armies, and that it acquires political capital by increasing and magnifying the distress and anxiety of the people, nothing more can be asked to prove its sympathy and alliance with the national enemy Can any one deny that the policy of the present Democratic party is based upon, and hopes for the useless capture and destruction of our armies, and the failure of the Government successfully to prosecute the war, and to put down the rebellion? Every victory gained by our patriotic brethren is welcomed by the leaders of the party with curses, deep and bitter, for they know that each Federal triumph weakens and blasts their hopes of popular success The Nation's glory is their disgrace, while they rejoice and take courage when the land mourns, and is bowed down with sorrow Shame on their infamy!

THANKSGIVING CONTRIBUTIONS —The Ladies' Oregon Sanitary Aid Society acknowledge with many thanks the Thanksgiving donations of $222 00 in coin from the Congregation "Beth Israel," $96 50 in coin and $127 00 in currency from the Presbyterian Church, $168 2[illegible] in coin and $42 00 in currency from the Methodist Church, and $46 20 in coin and $20 00 in currency from the Congregational Church—all of Portland

Amount $532 05 in coin
$203 00 in currency
Mrs A C. GIBBS, Secretary

The congregation at St. Paul's Chapel, in Oregon City, contributed $26 75 in coin, and we presume that collections were also made in other churches in this city, which have not yet been reported

DROWNED.—On Thursday morning, at about one o'clock, a man named Oliver Smith, while in a state of intoxication, got his feet tangled in some lines of the steamer Web foot, lying at Knott's wharf, and falling overboard was drowned. It is said that his shrieks of "murder" and "help" were heard distinctly for a considerable distance, even by a jury locked up in the court house, a block off Coroner Wm Groomes summoned an inquest upon the body, which was drawn from the river Thursday morning, and the verdict was 'drowned while in a state of intoxication " The deceased was between 40 and 50 years of age recently from Cariboo, and had been employed as engineer on the boat for the eight days preceding his death

RETURN OF THE JULIA —This steamer, after landing the Idaho murderers at Cascades, returned to this city Thursday night The impression is that Page will turn state's evidence if the case is not summarily disposed of by the people, as he already shows signs of weakening He is said to grow paler and more dejected the nearer he approaches Lewiston, at which place, we are told, a vigilance committee is organized in anticipation of their arrival

CITY TAXATION —A very pertinent communication signed "Greek Fire," will be found this morning on the fourth page to which it is crowded by voluminous dispatches The first half was published on Wednesday but so much time has elapsed that justice demands its publication entire. Read it

INSURANCE AND GOLD —Special dispatches of the 18th inst state that war insurance on treasure in New York was 1½ per cent and 3 per cent on merchandise round the Horn Gold sold same day at 150

SAILING OF THE PACIFIC — The steamer Pacific, Capt Burns, is advertised to leave at 5 o'clock, this afternoon She will take away a heavy freight, and about 500 passengers

THE Wilson G Hunt brought down forty passengers last evening There was no connection with lines above the Dalles

EASTERN NEWS.

Dates to November 18.

News of November 15th

WASHINGTON Nov 15 —Rebel papers have the following

NARROWS, NEAR DUBLIN (East Tenn) Nov 3d —Our cavalry yesterday captured at Rogersville 850 prisoners four cannon two stand of colors [illegible] wagons and 1,000 animals Our loss was two killed and eight wounded R RANSOM Major General

RALEIGH (N C), Nov 9 —Weldon (N C) advices state ten Yankee gunboats arrived [illegible] Currituck on Currituck Sound, on Friday [illegible] troops. It is thought another force from Newbern consisting of 2,000 cavalry and 15 pieces of artillery, is destined for the same point An adequate force has been sent to check them

The Richmond Enquirer is much exercised at the result of the North Carolina election which has sent one or two Peace men to Congress

Richmond papers say the Yankee prisoners will be sent to Danville, Lynchburg and other places

NEW YORK, Nov 15 —The Richmond Enquirer of November 11th says Rebel regiments under General Imboden met the retreating troops of General Echols near Sweet Springs Monroe county Virginia some forty miles from Christiansburg—the nearest point on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad—and checked the further advance of General Averill's Yankees More fighting was expected before the latter would relinquish their design of destroying the railroad

The same paper says Passengers by the Fredericksburg train report that the larger portion of the Yankee army had arrived at Germanna eighteen miles from Fredericksburg Meade was rapidly advancing toward that city, where a decisive combat would probably take place

NEW YORK, Nov 15 —The Baltimore American's correspondence from Charleston harbor, dated November 11th says The Monitors Montauk and Passaic have returned from Port Royal, fully repaired The bombardment of Sumter goes on without unusual incident The rebel fire is not serious The Monitor Patapsco recently threw five shells into Battery Bee compelling the rebels to desert their guns General Gilmore threw three ordinary shells into the center of Charleston to try the range of his guns This correspondent presumes that Charleston will not be shelled till the Monitors are in position in Rebellion Roads (west of Sumter) when its surrender can be demanded according to all the forms and usages of war

The rebels have two thousand negroes working on the batteries on Sullivan and James Islands Many of these works will be entirely useless when the great trial comes The correspondent concludes that the prospect of successful results was never more promising than now He indistinctly refers to experiments recently made touching the removal of the rebel obstructions as a success These are no longer to be feared He states his firm conviction that we will have Charleston or its ruins between now and Christmas

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov 15 —The Richmond Whig of Nov 16th has the following, dated Charleston, Nov 13th The firing of the enemy from their mortars and rifled guns, at the rate of twice per minute continued all night, and is still going on this morning The casualties last night were two killed and one wounded.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov 15th —There has been no fighting since the seizure of Lookout Valley, two weeks ago Hooker's position is considered impregnable Communication by the river between Brown's Ferry, two miles below, and Bridgeport is uninterrupted and secure Supplies for men and animals are accumulating steadily All danger is past The army is sanguine and the future looks bright The enemy hold Lookout Mountain and throw shell occasionally in both directions Nearly all fall short Bragg maintains a bold front around the city No diminution of his force is apparent.

The Chattanooga Rebel of Nov 10th admits that Bragg cannot take Chattanooga without a greater loss than the South can sustain The Savannah Republican says the same, and urges the reinforcement of Lee from here to defeat Meade when Grant could easily be whipped

The rebels claim Knoxville as certain to be captured, and hope that this will relieve Bragg and prevent a further retreat on Georgia

A correspondent of the Rebel under date of November 2d says 'The Federals have fortified Lookout Valley, and it is almost if not quite as strong as Chattanooga. If attacked in the valley they can reinforce faster than we can The move by which the Federals got possession of Lookout valley and the railroad to Bridgeport was a masterly conception, brilliantly executed It was an admirable combination, and everything slipped from us so easily that we hardly knew when it was done This operation changed the whole aspect of the situation "

News of November 16th

NEW YORK Nov 16 —A Washington dispatch states that a consultation was held on Saturday (14th) between the President Stanton Halleck and Meade. It is said that Stanton and Halleck favor the Army of the Potomac going immediately into Winter quarters while the President and Meade propose to take advantage of the completion of the Rappahannock bridge to endeavor to force a fight on Lee at a point nearest to the Rapidan The bridge will be finished the first of the week

NEW YORK, Nov 16.—The World's special dispatch says Our position has not changed for the last three days but we shall not long remain inactive It is ascertained that with the exceptions of detachments of cavalry, the rebels have moved to their old strong position south of the Rapidan The reports about a general engagement being imminent are premature. The rebels could have been accommodated at any time during the past week but they fled before our advance leaving their comfortable Winter quarters They do not want to fight north of the Rapidan Meade is master of the position north of the Rapidan, and will no doubt give the enemy battle when it shall be advantageous to do so Fourteen more miles of the Orange and Alexandria road have been rebuilt, including the bridge over the Rappahannock

WASHINGTON, Nov 16 —There is no foundation for the statement that the army is going into Winter quarters.

In the Third Army Corps it has been ascertained that sixteen regiments have agreed to re enlist in consideration that they retain their present organization Five regiments whose ranks have been greatly reduced by the casualties of war have agreed to re enlist and be consolidated as one full regiment. Six other regiments in the same corps are willing to re-enlist as mounted infantry

NEW YORK Nov 16th —A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, writing under date of yesterday says Information just received here from the South indicates that a large body of North Carolina and Georgia Unionists who have had habitations only in the mountains of Western North Carolina have made their escape with their arms and much valuable information into East Tennessee where they will swell the ranks of Burnside's army They come to us as original Union men and will fight with our volunteers to the end These men formed themselves into an army numbering about 5 000, poorly armed and equipped but with real courage and patriotism they have dared to give battle to the rebel regulars at a place called Warm Springs, north of Nashville Buncombe county, North Carolina, near the Tennessee line These brave men were making their way toward Knoxville when they were attacked on the 20th of October by a party of the 25th North Carolina regiment under Lieut Col Brison, who was badly whipped and forced to beat a hasty retreat to Ashville The rebels lost six killed and 30 wounded After the fight the Unionists advanced and took Ashville as a feint and came near taking Gen Vance—son of the Governor—and his staff prisoners After this the patriotic band fell back to the mountains A letter from Gov Vance dated Madison county, North Carolina, Nov 3d says The enemy have withdrawn from Washington, North Carolina to East Tennessee, and they carried off several prominent citizens

NEW YORK, Nov 16 —The World's special dispatch says Generals Meade Newton Pleasanton and Kilpatrick arrived in town last night It is understood that Meade proposes should the situation front admit to attend the inauguration of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg The army will also be represented on that occasion by a detachment from each division engaged in that battle

The Herald has advices from Banks expedition up to the afternoon of Nov 4th The expedition landed safely on the Texas shore of the Rio Grande after losing one or two vessels A boat's crew of [illegible] soldiers were drowned while disembarking The rebels evacuated Fort Brown setting fire to the works there Brownsville was also set on fire by a few rebel cavalry but the Unionists turned out and extinguished it whereupon the rebel cavalry joined by the Secessionists in the town attacked them and a terrible street fight was going on while the houses were burning around them The 13th Maine regiment was immediately ordered to march on the place The Maine regiment was first to land on the shore An Iowa regiment was immediately after them and their regimental flags were hoisted almost simultaneously

WASHINGTON, Nov 16 —The Richmond papers of Nov 14th and 12th have been received The late rebel [illegible] on the Rappahannock and in Western Virginia [illegible] subjects of comment The Richmond [illegible] is particularly indignant

The Examiner says the people may as well prepare themselves for another retreat in the West The indications of the annual migrations of birds are scarcely more unerring than the auguries which foretell the disappointment of the high expectations formed of results to be obtained in that quarter

Secretary Seward informed a distinguished Senator to-day that [illegible] since the war commenced [illegible] his dispatches from Ministers Adams and Dayton been of so cheering a character The official sentiment is undergoing a great change in England and France Neither is confident of rebel success

The Navy Department has received information [illegible] Washington (N C)

George [illegible] agent for Confederate bonds has been sent hither from the Army of the Potomac and committed to the Old Capitol

The Government received information through a Consul at Monterey a few days before the capture of Brownsville Texas by Gen Banks that a large cargo of Enfield rifles—enough to arm all the military in the State—had landed there

When the United States steamer Newbern was on her way to New York with a large number of rebel prisoners a plot was discovered to take the vessel from the officers and men

ATLANTA November 13th —The firing between our batteries and those of the enemy continues brisk The enemy has made a movement from right to left either with a view of making a diversion in order to attack Lookout Mountain or for sending troops to Burnside

NEW YORK Nov 16 —Mexican advices say that the commander of the French army in Mexico had taken the field at the head of his forces and some encounters with the troops of the Republic had taken place Gen Comonfort had assumed his place as Commander in Chief of the latter forces

WASHINGTON, Nov 16th —A letter dated October 30th from Lieut Purnell confined in Libby prison Richmond has been received stating that the clothing and provisions forwarded to the prisoners reached them safely Their only hope of escape from starvation was through their friends at home sending supplies

Ex Congressman Casey of Kentucky will be soon appointed Military Governor of Mississippi for the purpose of re organizing the loyal Government there

CAIRO Nov 16th —By the arrival of a steamer to-day from below we have the following The Pine Bluffs affair is thus noticed in the Little Rock Democrat of Nov [illegible] Marmaduke is reported to have gained a great victory at Pine Bluffs The truth is Clayton gave Marmaduke a terrible thrashing, killed and wounded 130 men, and drove him three miles Clayton's loss was 11 killed and 23 wounded. The only loss of property was the burning of part of the town by Marmaduke The property belonged mostly to the secesh Marmaduke has fallen back to the south of the Little Missouri river and joined Price on the road leading from Camden to Washington The whole southern force is estimated by deserters at six to eight thousand men

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC Nov 16th —Visits of the Commanding General to Washington, and of the President to the army are always significant. Meade has just returned from Washington The object of his visit is unknown It was doubtless an attempt to harmonize his views with those of the War Department Plans for the future have been concerted —probably everything is now harmonious

The railroad is in running order to day to the point where the army now is The bridge over Potato Run, near Culpepper, was destroyed by the rebels Men are at work repairing it The cars will run to Culpepper by the middle of the week

The enemy made a slight demonstration on our lines near Stevensburg yesterday It was probably merely a reconnoissance and was repulsed by Kilpatrick

The rebel position south of the Rapidan bridge is being strengthened They are extending their works down the river as if anticipating a flank movement on our part

John Minor Botts is now within our lines The report that he was taken to Richmond on our withdrawal was a mistake He was arrested and taken to Culpepper and held a few hours but released He has written a strong letter to the Richmond papers, pitching into the rebel leaders

News of November 17th.

WASHINGTON Nov 17 —On Sunday forenoon, the cavalry division of General Kilpatrick, under command of General Custer, made a reconnoissance along the Rapidan to Raccoon Ford, to ascertain the truth or falsity of the reports that the rebels were falling back on Gordonsville When our cavalry approached they were met by a few guns from the rebel intrenchments but our guns soon silenced them A small number of rebel sharpshooters were seen in the lower rifle pits Soon after another small body was discovered The river was too much swollen by the storm of Saturday night (14th) to justify a crossing and so the cavalry returned. The report on Thursday that a rebel force had crossed the Rapidan and attacked Kilpatrick's force is not confirmed

Information through a reliable channel from Washington is to the effect that two divisions of General A P Hill's rebel corps have left the Rapidan and gone southward—whether to Tennessee, or to Fredericksburg to make a demonstration on the left flank of the Army of the Potomac, does not yet appear

NEW YORK, Nov 17 —A Herald letter from off Brashear City (La) dated Nov 5th gives further particulars of the movements connected with Banks expedition A successful reconnoissance of the whole Texan coast had been made by the gunboat Tennessee and also of the mouth of the Rio Grande with its pass and bars—most valuable information as to the depth of water being obtained, as well as views of the rebel works at Sabine Pass Galveston river and other points During the cruise a small blockade runner, with arms, etc , from Havana was captured and another destroyed Firing was heard off Sabine Pass—supposed to be in honor of the arrival of Magruder

BUFFALO Nov 17 —We learn from a gentleman just from Toronto that a son of Joshua R Giddings has been arrested at Montreal and held to bail in the sum of $10 000 charged with kidnapping

NEW YORK Nov 17th —A Fortress Monroe letter says Lately heavy reinforcements have arrived here General Foster was about making a grand movement and when on the eve of starting it was nipped in the bud by an order from the War Department countermanding the movement.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov 17th —The rebel battery on Lookout Mountain was quite vigorously worked yesterday, firing alternately on Gen Hooker's camps and on the Chattanooga camps Shells were thrown occasionally into town, but their fire was neither accurate nor effective No casualties are reported Our Moccasin Point batteries have splendid range on the camps in Chattanooga valley on the east side of Lookout Indications were that an attack would be made on Hooker's position by a large force of rebels ere long but its strength and advantageous position led to an abandonment of the idea.

The latest information from our scouts contradict former reports and state that the Western and Atlantic road is worked to full capacity bringing reinforcements to Bragg and the road from Chickamauga Station eight miles south is lined with the camps of the rebels, so that the campaign will not be closed without a decisive and bloody struggle for Chattanooga and East Tennessee

Intelligence from East Tennessee to the evening of Nov 14th is satisfactory

LOUISVILLE Nov 17th —A telegram dated yesterday from the headquarters of the Army of the Tennessee states that Maj Gen Sherman was in Gen Thomas headquarters—having effected the junction of his entire corps with Grant's right wing

The Richmond Enquirer notices the capture of the steamer R E Lee and says her loss will be severely felt She has made many trips and probably paid for herself several times Her loss will none the less be regretted on that account

The Enquirer indorses an article from the Dispatch in reference to the treatment of those of our men held as prisoners The Dispatch's article is significant It is as follows If we are starving ourselves how can we prevent them from starving? But the truth is that though straitened for our own means of life we are caring as well for the prisoners as for ourselves Our own people as we know of our own personal knowledge have denied meat to their own families because it was necessary for the Yankees

The Richmond Dispatch of Nov 12th has the following Advices from Northern Virginia leave no doubt of the fact that the Federal army is advancing upon our forces with a view to bringing on a general engagement which will probably not be declined when the proper time arrives From present indications a few more days will serve to bring into collision the contending forces The latest reports from Averill [illegible] the enemy retreating, our forces slowly following

The Examiner of November 11th contains the following CHARLESTON Nov 11 —The enemy's fire on Sumter continues lively Battery Gregg opened fire this afternoon on James Island and Fort Moultrie and Battery Simpkins replied Nov 1[illegible]th —The firing is about the same [illegible] last Thursday morning (12th) to Saturday's sundown (14th) 1 524 mortar shells and rifle [illegible] fell at Sumter The enemy's fire [illegible] [illegible] dangerous to the fort There has been no firing [illegible] Sullivan Island Our batteries continue to keep up a slow fire on Gregg and the mortar battery

The Washington Chronicle of Nov 18th says it is expected that [illegible] between Meade and Lee will break out before the end of the week

News of November 18th

WASHINGTON Nov 18 —An intelligent deserter has arrived in our lines who left his regiment (the Second [illegible] Tigers) on Nov 7th [illegible] then at once between Brandy Station and Culpepper Court House He [illegible] Lee's army now in front [illegible] estimated from 40,000 to 50,000 men—consisting of A P Hill's Ewell's and part of D H Hill's corps No other troops have been sent West from Lee's army since the departure of Longstreet's corps and part of D H Hill The talk was in the rebel army that the troops belonging to Hill's corps would be brought back to Lee's army now that Hill was suspended from command The deserter thinks that Lee [illegible] this side of his [illegible] the Rapidan, which he describes as rather formidable but capable of being turned He describes the [illegible] among the Confederate soldiers as being [illegible] in view of their scant supplies of food and clothing A considerable portion of the Tiger Regiment were barefooted When the deserter left [illegible] had been reduced to quarter [illegible] Threats of desertion were daily made The camp allowance consists solely of flour and beef

NEW YORK Nov 18 —The Herald's Folly Island letter of Nov 11th says The enemy have opened a severe fire from their mortars on Sullivan's Island Some guns at Fort Gregg have been turned on them The rebel shells did no damage Col W Barton of the 48th New York Regiment has been appointed to command the forces at Hilton Head and Fort Pulaski

The Times dispatch dated Army of the Potomac, Nov 17th says It is believed that the enemy have now only a strong picket line on the Rapidan and that Lee's army has fallen back to some other position Heavy rains have made the roads and fords almost impassable

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC Nov 18 —No movements occurred yesterday Everything is quiet along the lines Small parties of rebel infantry are north of the Rapidan in the vicinity of Cedar Mountain The country is full of rebel deserters whom our cavalry are picking up constantly Our troops are bringing in 50 to 100 daily Our regular cavalry pickets are two miles beyond Culpepper The cavalry patrols go down to the Rapidan Gen Meade will not attend the Gettysburg celebration

WASHINGTON Nov 18 —Intelligence has been received here to the effect that Longstreet's corps or a portion of it, is moving in a direction between Chattanooga and Loudon (East Tennessee) as if to make a demonstration of Burnside's forces at Knoxville Some skirmishing has already occurred with the outposts of the latter and a battle is not improbable though the movement is regarded [illegible] for the rebel corps as it is far from its base Burnside is believed to be strongly fortified and it is believed that he cannot be dislodged from his position

It is announced by authority that from this date until the opening of Congress the President will be unable to receive visitors his time being fully occupied by public business

Some doubts are expressed as to the appointment of Gen Foster to take the place of Burnside especially as no order to that effect appears in the army official gazette

General Richard Busteed of New York city has been appointed United States District Judge for the District of Alabama vacated by the death of Judge George W Lane

The President declines to accept Burnside's resignation

MEMPHIS November 16th via Cairo, Nov 18th

The steamer Leon arrived this morning, from White river She reports that the guerrillas are swarming about the mouth of the river A gunboat stationed there was expecting them to attack a party sent from the vessel in pursuit of the band that burned the steamer Allen Collier

The Memphis Argus has received a Little Rock National Democrat of November 10th which had received a Washington Telegraph published in Hempstead county Arkansas This letter gives many items of interest It says that Kirby Smith as Lieutenant General commanding had issued a proclamation to the people of Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas calling for the formation of companies for local home defense He says By a vigorous effort you preserve your property you secure independence for yourselves and children and all that renders life desirable. Endure awhile longer and victory and peace must crown your efforts

Richmond papers have the following

MOBILE November 12th —General Cooper has the following dispatch from Tennis (Miss) received yesterday dated November 10th

Colonel Henry Maury commanding the Fifteenth Cavalry Regiment dashed in yesterday above Bayou Sara (La) on a plundering party of Yankees, three hundred strong, and drove them to their iron clads with great slaughter We brought off their wagon trains and twenty five prisoners from under the broadsides of their gunboats Only three of our men were wounded

NEW YORK Nov 17—Gold more active and firmer, opening at 47½ and closing at 48

The Times says Unless technical difficulties impede the proceedings of law the case of the Alexandra and the suspected iron rams will be shortly settled and we trust the decision will remove any just cause of complaint without unduly restricting our industry

It is stated that Japan had applied for French mediation with England

THE OBSERVANCE OF THANKSGIVING —The services at the different churches on Thanksgiving day were attended by a goodly number, and possessed an unusual interest The discourses were eminently patriotic, so far as we could learn and exhibited the intimate connection between the duties to God and our country, and why we should be thankful to One for His mercies to and long suffering with the faults of the other At the Presbyterian Church, the singing was as good as any ever heard in Portland The leader of the choir, Mr J B Wyatt, has recently received a new selection of very fine music from the East, part of which had been selected and practised [illegible] appropriate for such an occasion, when they were rendered with an effect which must have been experienced in order to be realized With the most accomplished choir in the State to which distinguished additions were made for the occasion it is hardly to be wondered at that the melodious blending of patriotism and devotion should inspire the congregation to the highest degree of liberality and make their donation one of the largest An incident transpired at the Methodist Church during the evening service which is worthy of note In his very able discourse Rev Mr Pearne [illegible] that all the States in rebellion had been re-occupied by our troops, except Texas Just before the benediction was to be pronounced some gentleman in the audience contrived to pass up to Mr P the dispatch received by stage in the morning, which announced the occupation of Texas by General Banks. Mr Pearne detained the congregation, corrected the error in his discourse by reading from the dispatch amid a tumult of applause When quiet was restored 'Now," said he, 'I think we can all sing the doxology' The audience arose, and we venture to say the words "Praise God from whom all blessings flow" were never rendered with such unanimity or under more affecting circumstances since they were written

THEATRICAL —To-night the "Star of Comedy and Song," Miss Fanny Morgan, will appear in "Grist to the mill," "Loan of a lover " and "Andy Blake, or the Irish Diamond " The bill is enticing, and those who attend will no doubt enjoy a rich treat

The theatre was well filled last night upon the occasion of Miss Morgan's first appearance in the city In "Masks and [illegible] her Peg Woffington was well sustained and won frequent and prolonged applause [illegible] may judge by one evening's performance she is entitled to the encomiums lavished upon her in San Francisco and Australia G B Waldron appeared with his usual ability as Triplet, and Miss Edith Mitchell as Mabel Vane. The entire company acquitted themselves with credit

"A PALPABLE HIT " — A canvas sign [illegible] yesterday by the proprietor of the Temperance House, on Front street attracted large crowds and excited considerable merriment [illegible] was suspended at such angle as [illegible] attention to the drinking saloon [illegible] called the 'Temperance Saloon [illegible] is excellent, and represents [illegible] Majesty, engaged in pouring [illegible] brisk fire, with his head averted [illegible] employment, and following [illegible] a neat painting of a sheep, followed [illegible] the word "clothing " Prefixed was [illegible] definite article It commenced at the upper and [illegible] corner, reading diagonally downward thus: "The (devil) in (sheep) clothing" The frequent smiles of passers indicated that they "saw the point."

NEVER FAILS —We are greatly obliged to Charles Barrett for furnishing us with recent pictorials and other papers just received by him. His stock is overflowing, and worthy of attention

AUCTION SALE THIS MORNING —The great sale at 10 o'clock, by A B Richardson, offers a splendid chance to invest in presents for the holidays such as German and American toys silver plated ware, dinner and tea setts groceries, &c. See advertisement.

ST STEPHEN'S CHAPEL —Divine service will be conducted at the new Chapel near the Public Square to-morrow morning by Bishop Scott. Seats free, and all who do not worship elsewhere are invited to attend

It is poor policy to sell a bad article for a big price Most people make the mistake of getting the most they can of every customer that enters their store, and as a matter of course never see his face again Heuston, Hastings & Co , the celebrated Clothiers of Montgomery street, San Francisco, adopt a different plan They want their customers to come again and to this end sell none but good goods, well made up, and their prices are reasonable

Detter's Hair Restorative.

This is to certify that I have used DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE and I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a SAFE and EFFECTUAL PREPARATION for the restoration of the Hair. I was nearly bald when I commenced the use of it, and after using two bottles, I find it has produced a fine healthy growth of hair and that too in less than two months. I can heartily recommend it for its great virtues and efficiency.

Liver Complaint Cured

CLEVELAND Ohio February 19 1859

Messrs A L SCOVILL & Co—Gents. I have been afflicted with the LIVER COMPLAINT for more than four years attended the most of the time with constipation of the bowels and at other times with diarrhea. During the last year I had a constant pain about the Liver and shoulder blade, and in my left side, with great uneasiness when I lay upon it.

I took DR MOTT'S LIVER PILLS according to the directions for three months and am now a different man. I had taken them but a short time before I felt great relief. I am able to do as much work as most men. My health is now restored. Yours truly DAVID PORTER

My son has been subject for some months past to pleurisy, attended with pain in the side and was violently taken with it in the night. I had some of DR. I gave him a dose and bathed his side as per directions and it eased the pain and after the applications the pain ceased and I have heard no complaint since. I consider the Panacea a medicine that every family should have and one that I do not wish to be without.

City Taxation.

MR EDITOR —Will you allow me, through the columns of your paper to call attention to a policy that has and now does, to some extent, cause the tax payers of our city to seriously reflect The subject is deemed of great importance to the well being and future prosperity of our city.

The mode of improving our streets and the policy heretofore pursued by the city authorities have been various and vacillating hence the condition of our streets both in the past and at the present It will not be denied that a large annual revenue has been collected for years past a portion of which from time to time has been expended in improving some particular street, or part of street, at the same time the holders of property adjacent to other portions of the public thoroughfare had to bear all the expense of such improvement besides paying a portion of the tax expended in improving a more favorite locality. Is such a policy reasonable, lawful or equitable? The unfairness and absurdity of such a policy are self-evident, but in spite of past experience, the present Council insists upon this outrageous, absurd, exploded and partial policy, and to carry out its design has levied a special tax of $10,000 upon all taxable property within the corporate limits both personal and real estate, for the ostensible purpose of improving the streets It is true they have not designated in the ordinance levying this tax, the mode or manner of the improvement nor the particular street or part of street Yet I insist they must have some particular improvement in view, to have so accurately estimated the cost thereof, and for the further reason, as I will attempt to show, that no general system of street improvement can be carried out with an annual tax of $10,000 To prove this, let us calculate the cost of improving Front street from Couch's Addition to the Penitentiary, with the cross streets to First street; it will give us twenty blocks on Front street, two hundred and sixty feet each block, crossings included, making 5 800 feet of front; the cross streets twenty blocks of one hundred feet each, 4 000 feet—total 9,800 feet; $6 per foot, which is said to be a low estimate for grading and planking a sixty foot street. At this rate the whole cost will not be less than $58,800 If the city pays one half the sum, $29 400 it will require an annual tax of over eight mills on the dollar on all taxable property within the corporate limits of this city, valued at $3,500,000, as per assessment roll In addition to this some five mills will be required for general purposes—total 13 mills Therefore, I repeat, this system is impracticable, as the charter will not under any circumstances, allow a tax of more than 10 mills on the dollar, one half of which never was intended to be levied except in special cases It will be seen that this estimate has ignored all street improvements in Couch Addition to this city Yet I challenge to offer the first good reason for doing so as the holders of real estate in that portion of this city have always paid, and I believe will continue to pay their annual city tax, though under no legal obligation to do so

Tax payers, are you willing to pay the tax here indicated? If you are perhaps you would then fail to secure the object sought by this system of indiscriminate and enormous taxation, for with a 13 mill tax only Front street, with the cross streets to back to First street, would be improved in one year at this rate it would take four years to improve as far back as Third street and the fifth year Front street would need replanking Hence, if this system is to be pursued, you will only secure a partial improvement of the streets Yet, the property on these unimproved contributes to the tax expended in improving streets where they have no interest Yet it is true, that if a few streets were graded, planked or paved it would certainly add much to the appearance of our city, and to the convenience of many parties, and also enhance the value of real estate, yet I contend that real estate will not be increased in value by reason of this improvement more than the cost thereof, adjacent to any particular lot If this be true, then we may ask, where is the justice or equity of making one lot pay one hundred times more than another for improving the same amount of street? Let us see if such would not be the practical working of improving the streets by a general tax To prove this we will assume, without fear of contradiction, that the cost is the same (as a general thing) to improve the street opposite a vacant lot valued at $500 as another lot with costly buildings thereon valued at $60 000, the cost of which for each 50 feet lot being about $150

If the city by a general tax pays one half the cost, will this affect equally the various owners of real estate? Let us see the $50,000 lot, with a tax of eight mills (which is the lowest estimate that can be made to carry out this system) will pay a tax of $400, also one half the cost of the street $75—total $475 The vacant lot valued at $500 pays a tax of $4, also half the cost of the street, $75—total $79, being $71 less than the cost of the street opposite such lot By this rule, the $50,000 lot pays all the expense of the street—$150—also the additional sum of $325, making this lot pay $396 more for the same improvement than the $500 lot This may be fair and equal taxation, but many tax payers cannot see it But there is another class of our citizens upon whom this system bears with greater injustice and hardship, namely, merchants, traders and owners of personal property—as this tax in no way benefits or increases its value, but is calculated to operate as an embargo on one, and a depreciation on the other Of this, the owners of real estate need not complain, as it will be seen that merchants of every description bear a part of this burden without the slightest remuneration or benefit whatever Merchants and traders, are you willing to submit to this?

Gentlemen of the Common Council, let me ask you to explain the necessity of improving the Public Square at this time, also for levying this tax of $10,000 for improving the streets Are not many of the owners of real estate in all parts of this city repairing the streets and street crossings as fast as the weather and circumstances will permit, at their own expense? This being so, is it right and proper that those same parties should be heavily taxed to repair the streets opposite and adjacent to other property, simply because the owner thereof declines and refuses to do the same at his own cost?

But, gentlemen while your policy in regard to streets is dissented from allow me to say that your causing the street lamps to be lighted has met the hearty approval of our citizens, and should you deem it proper to cause double the present number to be erected the people will say "well done good and faithful servants" without stopping to enquire whether you would light them with burning fluid kerosene, coal gas, or—or—or and

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

The Sisters of Charity,

VANCOUVER, W T

THIS INSTITUTION which was commenced in the year 1856, is delightfully situated at Vancouver on the north bank of the Columbia river The beauty of the surrounding scenery and the salubrity of the place can not be surpassed

The course of studies embraces the various branches of a solid and useful education and in particular attention is given to form the pupils to household duties and plain and fancy needle work

guns Generally ... satisfied that every one will be paid into the center of the young ladies placed at the age of his guns This correspondent presumes that Charleston will not be shelled till the Monitors are in position in Rebellion Roads (west of Sumter) when its surrender can be demanded according to all the forms and usages of war

The rebels have two thousands negroes working on the batteries on Sullivan and James Islands Many of these works will be entirely useless when the great trial comes The correspondent concludes that the prospect of successful results was never more promising than now He indistinctly refers to experiments recently made touching the removal of the rebel obstructions as a success These are no longer to be feared He states his firm conviction that we will have Charleston or its ruins between now and Christmas

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov 15—The Richmond Whig of Nov 16th has the following dated Charleston, Nov 15th The firing of the enemy from their mortars and rifled guns, at the rate of twice per minute continued all night and is still going on this morning The casualties last night were two killed and one wounded

CHATTANOOGA Nov 15th—There has been no fighting since the seizure of Lookout Valley, two weeks ago Hooker's position is considered impregnable Communication by the river between Brown's Ferry two miles below and Bridgeport is uninterrupted and secure Supplies for men and animals are accumulating steadily All danger is past The army is sanguine and the future looks bright The enemy hold Lookout Mountain and throw shell on occasionally in both directions Nearly all full short Bragg maintains a bold front around the city No diminution of his force is apparent

The Chattanooga Rebel of Nov 10th admits that Bragg cannot take Chattanooga with out a greater loss than the South can sustain The Savannah Republican says the same and urges the reinforcement of Lee from here to defeat Meade when Grant could easily be whipped

The rebels claim Knoxville as certain to be captured and hope that this will relieve Bragg and prevent a further retreat on Georgia

THIS ... correspondent of the Rebel under date of N ... year under the patronage of the Legislature and Executive of the Territory of Washington, recommends itself by its location in the prettiest and healthiest part of Vancouver The building is fitted up to accommodate for the present about twenty inmates
